now threaten to make America second best both in numbers and quality of major weapons." The nominee said that the United States under Democratic administrations has gone from first to second in bombers, first to second in tactical aircraft, has virtually lost a 50 per cent advantage in intercontinental ballistic missiles and is steadily losing its advantage in nuclear submarines.

The United States, he said, has produced only one new tactical aircraft since the Eisenhower administration "while the Soviets have put out seven."

Repeating a campaign theme, Nixon said the United States, much as it would like to negotiate a lessening of tensions and the arms race with the Soviet Union, must do so from strength. He promised more strength.

He also pledged to:

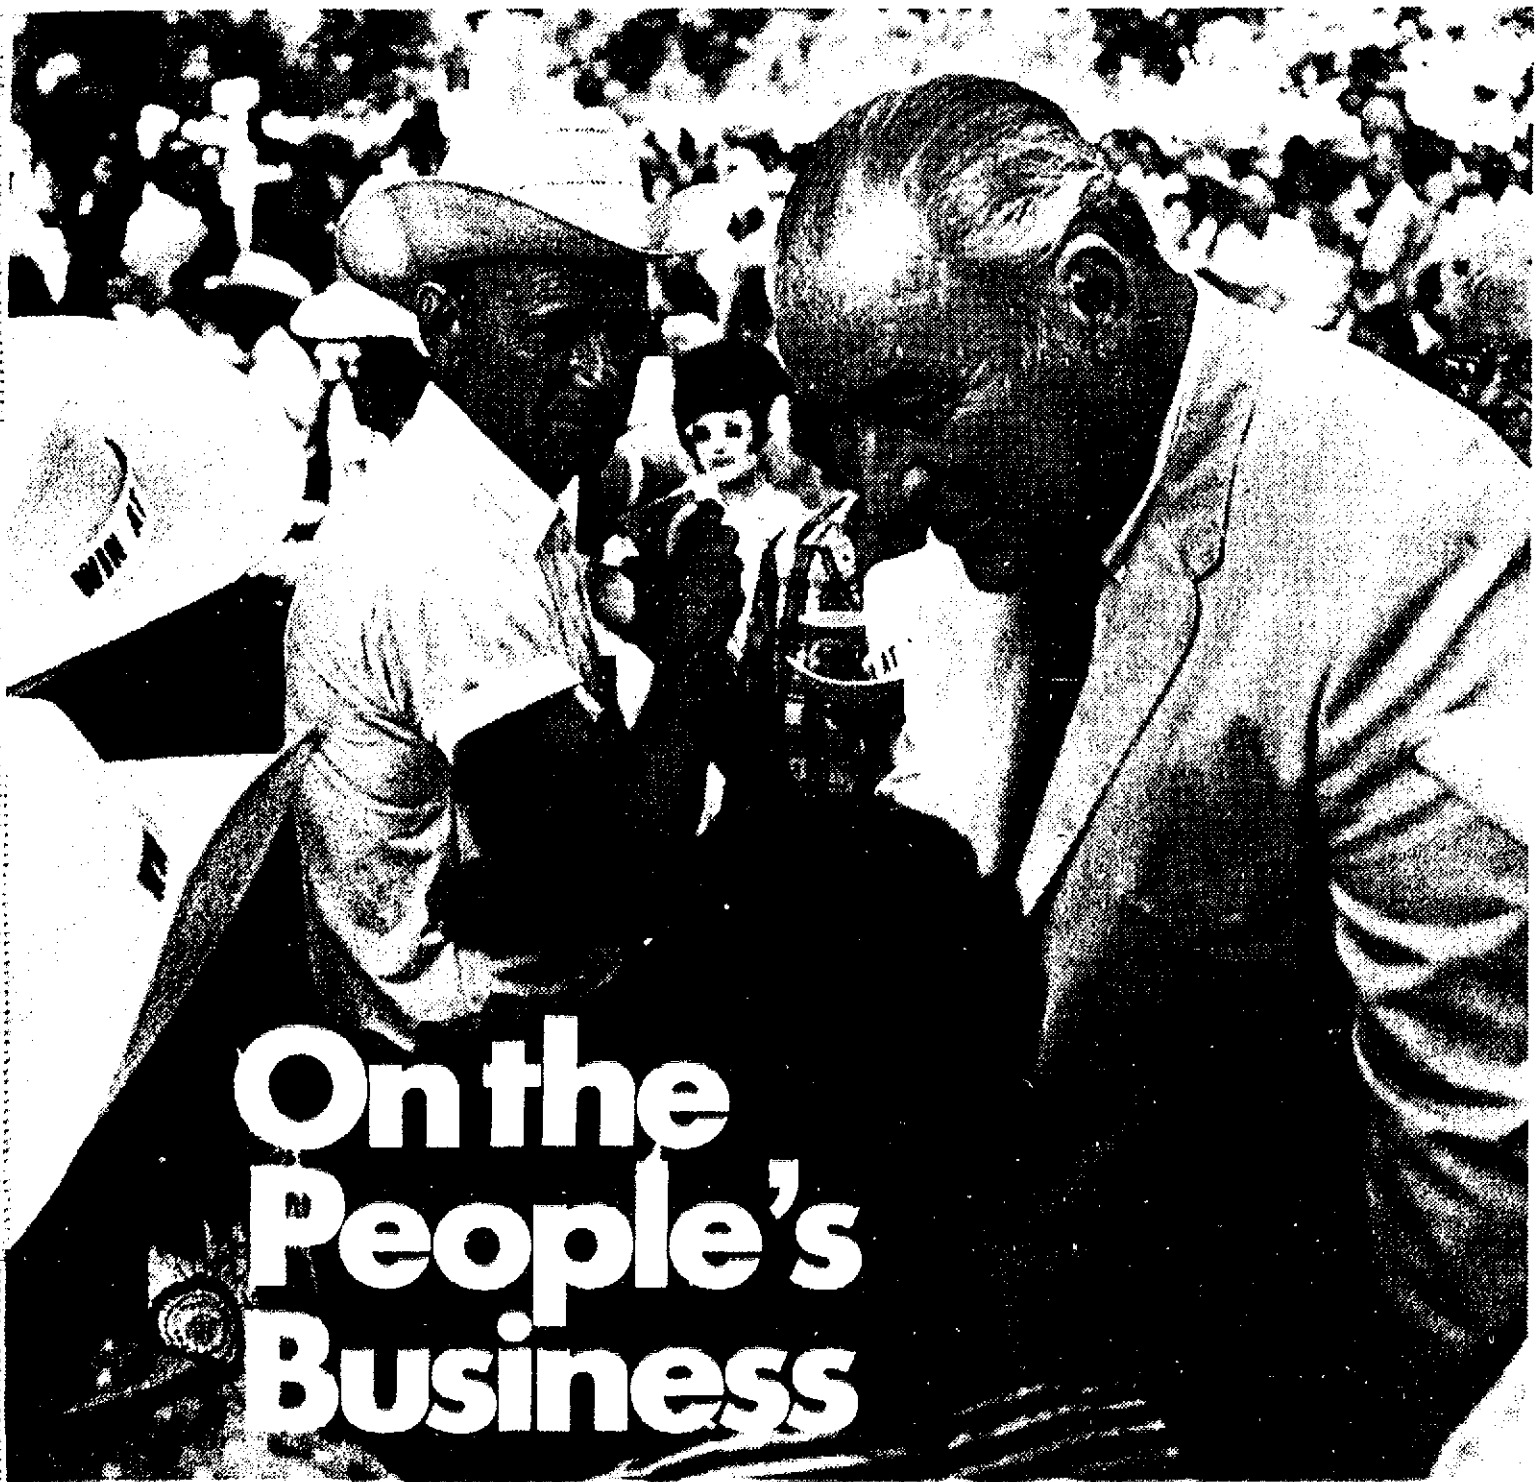

- "Initiate a major reorganization of the Department of Defense to correct its overcentralization and streamline its top-level overstaffing."
- "Restore ready access of our top military professionals to the president of the United States."
- "Root out the 'whiz kid' approach which for years in the Defense Department has led our policies and programs down wrong roads."

The above picture shows a portion of the estimated 1000 persons who attended the Democrat Rally held Thursday night in Hope Fair Park Coliseum. Refreshments were served and entertainment was by the Rainbow Melodies Band and Odom Quartet.

electors has been upheld in courts. Florida has the stiffest reading law of all.

It says the names of the candidates "for whom the electors will vote if elected" are printed on the ballot. An elector convicted of violating the law could be guilty of a felony.

The New Mexico statute says the electors "must cast their ballots... for the candidates of the party which said electors represent" and any elector violating the provision "shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor."

In the other states which apply restrictions there are these rules for electors:

Arkansas—"shall vote for the candidates of the political party which they represent."

Colorado—are "required to vote for... candidates who received the highest number of votes at the preceding general election in Colorado."

Connecticut—"shall vote for the candidates under whose name he ran on the official election ballot."

District of Columbia—"must swear or affirm that he will 'vote for the candidates of the party he has been nominated to represent, and it shall be his duty to vote in such manner in the Electoral College.'"

Hawaii—"shall vote for 'the candidates of the political party which they represent.'"

Idaho—"shall be bound to vote for the party candidate whose name appears at the head of the party ticket."

Maryland—"shall cast votes for the candidates who have received a plurality of the votes cast in the state of Maryland."

Denies Land Purchase Wrongdoing

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — D.T. Herndon, an employee of the state land office, said Thursday he was not an employee of the office when he purchased some land as Republican Ed Allison had contended.

Allison, a candidate for state Land Commissioner, had previously charged that the Democratic incumbent, Sam Jones, had been involved in three land transactions with Herndon since 1964.

Jones said Herndon did not begin working for the office until April 1966 but Allison said state records showed that Herndon drew paychecks in July and August 1965.

Herndon said Thursday he had been an employee of the office from July through November 1965 but that he did not work from December through March. He said he made the last land purchase Allison referred to during that time.

"It seems as if Mr. Allison is deliberately issuing false statements to mislead the public thinking this will help him to gain votes," Herndon said.

HAMBURG, Germany (AP) — A vicar's letter, sent to his bishop in British Guiana 117 years ago, was sold Thursday at a stamp auction for $43,750.

Its envelope had a blue two-cent stamp. This is what made the letter so valuable, as the two-cent British Guiana stamps of the time were pink. The blue stamp is considered the only one in existence.

No Factual Basis for Some Ads

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — John Ward, campaign manager for Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, says there is no factual basis for some political advertisements which he said appeared Wednesday in several papers.

Ward said Thursday that an advertisement entitled "The Rockefeller Way" referred to a "$50 million" dollar tax increase, a "$300 million dollar" bond issue and "wild spending."

In a prepared statement, Ward said "false statements, half truths and innuendo" are the characteristics of a candidate in trouble and that Rockefeller's Democratic opponent, Marion H. Crank, is in trouble.

The Australian team finished fifth in the Olympiad. They were on their way to do even better when their star player, Dick Cummings, was taken ill and hospitalized for several days.

The Australians had great faith in Dick's ability to play the dummy, as may be evidenced by North's jump to three spades. They were playing limit raises but in our opinion only a kangaroo would consider jumping with the North hand. True, there were 10 high card points and a doubleton club among his securities but there was no ace and just one king.

West opened the king of clubs and continued with two more leads of the suit. Dick ruffed the third lead with the 10 of spades.

East decided not to over-ruff in the hope that he would collect two trump tricks instead of one. There was nothing wrong with that decision but there was a lot wrong with East's choice of a discard. He let go the seven of hearts instead of a low diamond.

This gave Dick a chance to go all-out for his contract and he made the best of the opportunity by running off four diamond tricks in order to get rid of his losing heart.

After that it was a simple matter for Dick to lead dummy's three of trumps and finesse against East's nine with the seven spot. A spade was then led to dummy's queen and the best East could do was to take his ace of spades and give up.

Dick was lucky indeed. He had to get that misplay by East and had to find East with all four trumps and four diamonds but one test of a good player is his ability to take full advantage of things like that.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

SHE'S "TIRED OF IT" TOO
Dear Helen: Reading the letters from "Tired of It" and "Rob" who showed how young people were shoved around in stores, I thought I'd let you know what has happened to our kids.

We try to teach our children respect for their elders, but after seeing how they are treated, wonder. Consider this: Our kids were in line at a hamburger stand. Adults kept shoving ahead of them. Finally I took a straight pin out of my purse and gave our daughter instructions to stick the next person who pushed them out of line. I made sure everyone in the line heard what I said! It worked, but when they got to the window, the waitress ignored them and actually asked the man behind them for his order! I reported her, but the manager couldn't care less and said so.

At the delicatessen I came up behind two young girls who had been waiting there quite a while. The clerk jumped right to my order, and I told her the girls were first. She said, "They don't want anything, they're just hanging around." The girls told me they hadn't even been asked what they wanted. So the clerk grudgingly fixed their order, and then refused to wait on me.

It even happens at the Post Office. Children, taught politeness, stand back, and adults take advantage.

Teen-agers and young adults control the spending of about 76 percent of the circulated money in the United States. It's high time businesses woke up to the fact and treated them with the respect due intelligent, honest and well-behaved customers. They deserve the same rights and courtesy as so-called adults — MRS. F.F.K.

Dear Helen: Please print this for "Puzzled Mother" who wants to show relatives and friends that her handicapped child should be treated normally and not be over-protected. When I was a baby I got polio and it left my legs crippled. My parents never babied me. They ignored all the people who told them to pamper the "poor little thing."

Instead I was treated just as any other normal child. I was never allowed to get out of doing something because of my handicap. If I fell down, my folks didn't come running. They would say, "Be careful next time," and let me get up by myself.

This may sound mean, but believe me, I am very glad they treated me so. Though I still wear a brace, I never let it bother me. I live exactly as anyone else. If someone says, "Poor thing," I ignore them and do everything in my power to prove how wrong they are.

There's a difference between love and pity. My parents were very wise. I'm sure "Puzzled Mother" will continue to be, in spite of "advise." — B.B.

Dear Helen: I met this wonderful man who often talked about the Catholic Priesthood, but I never thought he meant it. Now he has actually left me to fulfill his desire. I love him very much. What can I do? — ALONE

Dear Alone: If he loves his religion more, there isn't anything you can do but bow to the inevitable. In the next two years, he'll find out whether he is suited for the Priesthood. Let the decision be entirely his. — H.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Nabors, who is preparing to graduate from country-style comic to next season's variety show host, appeared in a CBS special Thursday night mostly as a song and dance man.

But, just to let the "Gomer Pyle" fans know that under the fancy city clothes there was the same homespun innocent, he occasionally broke out his high-pitched voice and called his lady guest stars "ma'am."

The hour concentrated on musical numbers with Nabors using his excellent singing voice in everything from opera to pop.

He was at the center of a merry, artfully produced program and worked well with Carol Burnett, Debbie Reynolds, Mary Costa and Vikki Carr.

After a couple of seasons watching Nabors specials, his deep singing voice is no surprise, but there is always some shock when he acquits himself so well in the dance numbers. He worked with the chorus girls with ease and grace.

The nonmusical sketches didn't amount to much, but a series of commercial jingles to the music of Wagner, Strauss and other composers of Operatic classics, was bright and to the point.

In the Nabors show, the cast took off on a remedy for tension — to the music of Rossini — and made hilarious fun of a mouth wash sales pitch — to Strauss music and in Student Prince costumes.

By coincidence, the program that followed on another network also poked a bit of fun at commercials. It was ABC's "That Girl," Marlo Thomas, still playing a stagestruck girl, was hired to do some TV commercials which involved jumping from airplanes, dropping off a cliff and otherwise acting like some of the bemused characters frequently sighted during station breaks.

Johnny Carson, on his NBC show the other night, wandered into some off-the-cuff comment about current commercials, in particular expressing his dislike for the specifics illustrated in some antiperspirant commercials.

He was aghast, too, at the of-

Lynda Bird Has Baby, LBJ Passes Cigars

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A squalling, ruddy girl with black hair was born today to Lynda Bird Robb, touching off a round of free cigars handed out by beaming grandfather and father.

The grandfather, President Lyndon B. Johnson, announced the birth himself to newsmen at suburban Bethesda Naval Medical Center.

The father, Marine Capt. Charles S. Robb, was in his tin-roofed office of the 1st Marine Division's supply section in Vietnam.

Robb's first reaction? "It's a tradition here," he said. "Outstanding is the word we use." "Very happy" were the words Johnson used to describe the family. The 24-year-old mother "seems to be quite normal and relaxed about it all," he said.

The little girl, who weighed 7 pounds, 8 ounces and measured 20 inches long, wasn't named. Asked what names were under consideration, Robb replied, "I'll have to let Lynda answer that one, since she's had custody for the last nine months."

Three Navy doctors and two anesthesiologists attended the birth at 12:03 a.m. Within a half an hour, Robb had a telephone call from Lt. Gen. Lewis Wall, Marine deputy commandant, informing him of the birth.

Wait volunteered to take Robb the first pictures of the baby when the general goes to Vietnam Saturday, the President said.

The new baby was "healthy and vociferous," the President said. "She seems to know that she is here and has her work cut out for her because she has really expressed herself."

Lynda entered the hospital at 8:20 p.m. Thursday night, about two hours after labor started. Her mother and 21-year-old sister, Luci Nugent, went along on the eight-mile drive from the White House.

Lynda spent just 15 minutes in fer of a mouth wash manufacturer to have viewers send in the name of associates who "offend," as they daintily call it, and let the impersonal company break the bad news.

Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon, who has not appeared on network news interview shows for the past two years, has accepted an invitation to appear on the CBS evening edition of "Face the Nation" on Sunday, 6:30-7 EDT. The other two candidates have already appeared on the program.

Curtis E. LeMay, running for vice president on George Wallace's ticket, will be the guest on the noon edition of the program.

He was aghast, too, at the of-the delivery room.

Her doctor, Navy Capt. Walter M. Loneragan, 46, of Boston, chief of obstetrics and gynecology at the Hospital said it was "a normal birth and an uneventful labor."

Lynda had a regional block anesthetic and was conscious throughout. Luci, who provided the first presidential grandchild, — Patrick Lyndon Nugent — 16 months ago, said her sister "was totally alert the whole time."

As the President and Mrs. Johnson munched some of the celebration candy, they confided they had hoped their second grandchild would be a girl.

Lynda was staying in the hospital's third-floor presidential suite where her father had stayed when he underwent surgery in the fall of 1965 and again in 1966.

While Luci and Mrs. Johnson had sped to the hospital on the rainy night with Lynda, her father stayed at his office until notified that his daughter had gone to the delivery room.

He arrived at the hospital at 12:23 a.m., 20 minutes after the baby was born.

Speaking so softly he could hardly be heard, the President made this announcement: "Mrs. Johnson and I and Lynda and Chuck are very pleased to welcome to our family a baby daughter — arrived in accordance with our hopes."

Don't do nothing halfway, else you find yourself dropping more than can be picked up. — Louis Armstrong, American band leader.

culture and fashion trends.

"I would guess as many as 50 new words came into common usage last year," Flexner adds. "For instance, medicare, flashcube, high-rise apartment, SST and DNA."

To keep tabs on the ever-changing language he keeps a card file of words and their frequency of use, adding new ones by computerized scanning of publications, monitoring radio and television and interviewing people in social subgroups.

Miss Nixon to Reign as Queen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tricia Nixon, 22-year-old daughter of Richard M. Nixon, Republican presidential candidate, will reign as queen of the 16th International Azalea Festival at Norfolk, Va., next April 23-27.

The announcement was made here Wednesday by Jack Phillips, publicity director of the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce, which sponsors the festival.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Tom Starke, at 6, will get $5,200 a year for acting in television's Doris Day show and if yearly options are picked up, the blue-eyed first grader could get $860 a picture or a guaranteed $11,050 in the fifth year.

The contract, approved Wednesday by Superior Court Judge Robert A. Wenke, specifies that 20 per cent of Todd's earnings must be placed in U.S. government bonds and held for him until he becomes 21. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David W. Starke. Starke is an inspector for an aircraft manufacturer.

Bobkittens Romp Over Magnolia

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Stomping to their third consecutive victory, the Hope Bobkittens were never headed as they walloped the Magnolia Panther Cubs 31-0 at Hammons Stadium last night.

Now 5-1 for the season, the Kittens revenged many earlier man-handlings at the hands of Magnolia, and they really worked the Panther Cubover. Hope's tenacious defense pushed the Cubs back to minus 17 yards rushing and only 7 yards in the air.

After fumbling the opening kickoff, the Bobkittens took over on their own nine-yard stripe. Three plays later tailback Ray Wheelington started a record night for rushing yardage by cranking 13 yards for a first down at the 27. Before the game was over Ray had carried the pigskin 16 times for an unbelievable 202 yards and three touchdowns.

On the next play Hope fumbled it away at their own 32, but the 27 was as close as the Cubs got to the Bobkitten goal all night. Magnolia was held quickly in four plays, and the Kittens took over at the same 27-yard line.

Wheelington blasted six yards to the 33, then took off on a sweep around right end. He broke two tackles, and broke around the corner. A few seconds later Ray had a 67-yard TD run to his credit, and after a missed extra point the Kittens had a 6-0 lead with 3:59 on the clock in the first period.

The Cubs were held on their next possession, but a 42-yard punt set Hope back to its 17. In one of their characteristic time-consuming marches, the Bobkittens took six minutes of playing time and a remarkable 18 plays to cover the 83 yards to paydirt. Tommy Miller apparently had slumped over, from the seven, but when the ball was put down at the one, Wheelington simply took it over for his second score. Once again the kick attempt by guard Bill Moore missed, this one hitting the crossbar and bouncing aside. That made it 12-0 with 3:58 left in the half, and the Kittens clearly had the upper hand.

Once again Magnolia was held without a first down, and Wheelington returned the punt 15 yards to the Cub 47. On the very next play Ray again broke, this one carrying 47 yards for his third score in the first half. The PAT was blocked, and at the half Hope led 18-0.

Magnolia came out a better team in the second half, and they garnered their only first down right before the end of the scoreless third segment. However, the Bobkittens rushed through and the kick was faked, and Buddy Init 25-0 with 4:49 on the clock.

Taking the ensuing kickoff, the Wheelington's 202 yards were

Bobcats to Try for a Comeback

By RALPH ROUNTON

Star Sports Writer

After hitting a mid-season peak

last week with Fairview, the Hope

Bobcats try to keep their stuff tonight against the Magnolia Panthers before an expected large gathering in Magnolia's new stadium at 7:30 p.m.

The Panthers are flying high at 7-0, and they have never been touched. They have given up seven points all year, which Crossett scored on the Magnolia reserves late in the fourth quarter of that game.

Meanwhile, the upset-minded

Bobcats realize how close they came last week to being giant-killers and are ready to go.

Hope's attitude for this one is good, but the overall enthusiasm is not quite that of the Homecoming game last week.

Watch, if you go to the game, and see how effective the Hope offense is against that unpene-trable rock of a defense. Magnolia people are going to be surprised at the Panthers' trouble in moving the ball against our growing Bobcats.

The earlier emphasized key on defense for the Bobcats will be the effectiveness of end Ronney Brown, who is trying to recover from rib and knee injuries. Should the knee give on

Brown, then either Phil Watkins or James Rowe must fill the bill. Both have desire, but neither one has the experience

Brown has.

Early in the game Hope should try to establish a passing attack to open up the middle for Jerry McWilliams, Rodney Jones, and Mike Monroe. Massanelli will work on targets John Kemp and David Still, and he has used Monroe for quick throws up the center.

Important once again is the kicking game, in which David Still has excelled in his punting duties for the past couple of weeks.

Once more David must come up with a good performance, and

James Rowe should be Brown's substitute in the placement boots.

People may talk of Magnolia's advantage from running the two-platoon system, but the Bobcats are playing more and more boys each week. For example, sophomore Calvin Willis is filling in well at weakside guard, and he will start tonight to let Brown have a rest.

For the Bobcats, an upset will depend on ability to control the ball, as the offense did beautifully in the first half against Fairview. Let's forget the past, though, because the events of the Hope-Fairview and even Arkansas-Texas contests show that there's no use in brooding over the "ifs," because your past fate cannot be undone.

On the hunch that everything will stay together, Hope will be able to score twice, and the weak kicking game of Magnolia's could be their undoing. With eyes closed, call it 14-13 for the Bobcats in a very major upset. Also, give those Arkadelphia Badgers

a big chance of knocking off Malvern in a big 4-AA West game, and the Badgers have the man-

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The

United States' rag-tag basketball team goes for the gold tonight, while new controversies and charges of fixed wrestling matches arose in these trouble-ridden 19th Olympic Games.

The American gold medal production slowed considerably

Thursday—two in swimming—but the margin over Russia increased.

Carl Robie, Drexel Hill, Pa., scored an upset victory in the men's 200-meter butterfly and

Debbie Meyer, Sacramento,

Calif., collected her third gold medal with an Olympic record

9:24.0 in the women's 800-meter freestyle.

That pushed the U.S. collection of golds to 37 and a total of

88. Russia, meanwhile, managed only one gold, giving them

16 for the Games and a total of 53.

The United States will be favored in two of the three swimming finals tonight, but the attention will be riveted on the American basketball team's game with Yugoslavia for the Olympic title.

The game will be telecast live to the United States by ABC-TV.

The team, shunned by such collegiate standouts as Lew Alcindor, Elvin Hayes and Don

May, has been forged into a tightly knit, precision crew by Coach Henry Iba.

The United States hasn't lost

a game, much less the gold medal, since the sport was introduced into the Olympics in 1936, but Iba's team faces a manor challenge in the Yugoslavs, who gained the finals by beating

Russia.

Three new controversial is-ssues broke Thursday.

Sweden was stripped of its bronze medal in modern pentathlon.

The Olympic Organizing Committee announced that only six representatives from each country will march in the closing ceremonies, a break in tradition.

In all recent Olympics, the entire contingents from all competing countries have marched in the colorful ceremony.

Figures Hogs to Win Over Texas Team

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — It looks like North Texas State Coach Rod Rust wrote the script for the Eagles' game here Saturday night with the University of Arkansas.

The setting is perfect for an upset.
The Razorbacks are coming off a disappointing 30-29 loss to Texas and two of their solid offensive performers, tailback David Dickey and fullback Bruce Maxwell, are not scheduled to take part against the Eagles.
Both Arkansas and North Texas are 4-1 for the season and the Razorbacks are ranked 16th in the nation.
Beginning with the 1966 season, the Eagles have compiled a 19-4-1 record. Arkansas provides the perfect opportunity for North Texas to prove it can compete with a bigtime power.

Arkansas will have to contend with defensive tackle Joe Greene, a 6-foot-4, 274-pounder, who is being boomed for All-America honors.
Junior quarterback Steve Ramsey has hit on 92 of 172 passes for 1,012 yards and eight touchdowns so far this season. His primary targets are flanker Ronnie Shanklin and split end Barry Moore who have caught more than 60 passes between them.

The Razorbacks cannot afford to look past the Eagles to the November stretch drive. Arkansas' manpower may be the difference in the second half.

ARKANSAS 31, NORTH TEXAS STATE 14.
Arkansas State University goes to Abilene, Tex., Saturday night to battle Abilene Christian for undisputed possession of first place in the Southland Conference. Both are 1-0 in conference play, but the eighth-ranked Indians are riding a five-game victory streak.

Abilene's offense is built around quarterback Jim Lindsey, who has thrown for almost 1,000 yards and tailback Trent Lancaster, a 9.7 sprinter. Freshman quarterback James Hamilton and tailback Frank McGowan head ASU's offense. If the Indians get past Abilene they would be well on their way to the SLC title.

Paris that a secret plan had been formulated in Washington that calls for a first step of a bombing halt which would lead to a cease-fire in South Vietnam.

The sources said the plan's operations hinge on a sign from Hanoi that North Vietnamese forces were being withdrawn from the demilitarized zone.

There was no comment from the White House concerning the Paris report.

Reporters had been told earlier in the week that Johnson would meet with them before the weekend, leading to speculation that the President foresaw a possible Vietnam breakthrough.

However, he said Thursday, that "there had been no basic change, no breakthrough."

This was the second "no breakthrough" report from the White House in less than two weeks. The first came Oct. 16.

The sequence of no-basic-change statements had led to speculation that a serious hitch has developed between Washington and Hanoi.

Up to this time the prevailing view in official Washington was that a final decision in Hanoi was very close.

The reason for delay, according to some diplomatic sources, is that the Hanoi authorities who may favor coming to terms with the United States face resistance not only from their own hard-line policymakers but also from the leaders of the Viet Cong and the National Liberation Front in the South.

Conference Action in Full Swing

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
Associated Press Writer
Texas Tech has a new partner at the top of the Southwest Conference football standings, but the romance is going to end in a quarrel Saturday.

That's when SMU's record-smashing aerial show invades Lubbock's Jones Stadium for a showdown between the only unbeaten teams in conference play.

The Raiders 3-0-2 for the season, and SMU, 4-1, are all even in league games at 2-0 each, since rejuvenated Texas dealt Arkansas its first loss last week.

The winner will take sole possession of first place in the league and the loser will be tied for second with Arkansas, and possibly Texas and Texas A&M, both 1-1 in the league.

Texas plays Rice and the Aggies play at Baylor, in the only other conference games. Arkansas plays North Texas State and TCU entertains Louisiana State in non-conference games.

SMU, which has lost only to Ohio State, the No. 2 nationally ranked team, will set out once again to prove it is for real. In preseason figuring, the Mustangs consistently were pushed to the bottom of the forecasts.

That was before rubber-armed sophomore quarterback Chuck Hixson and receiver Jerry LeVias put together their aerial act. Now they're the prolific passing combination in all the land.

That is bad news for the Raiders. The only blotches on Tech's record are two ties, and they were suffered at the hands of passing teams, Cincinnati and Mississippi State.

Texas is a heavy favorite over Rice but Texas Coach Darrell Royal fears the Owls option play, directed by Robby Shelton.

"Rice has done a good job of stopping us in the past," Royal said. "The thing we have been weakest on is the thing they do best. We have been poorest at defending the options, and that's where Robby Shelton excels."

The Texas Aggies will try to keep things rolling in their game with Baylor. Despite key injuries, A&M got its big plays working in a 27-7 victory over TCU last week.

The Bears are anxious to find out how sophomore Steve Stuart handles his No. 1 quarterbacking assignment. Stuart entered the Arkansas game two weeks ago with Baylor trailing 21-0 and engineered them to only a 21-19 deficit before the Hogs pulled away.

It will be homecoming for Baylor, which will be playing before the home folks for the first time this year after a disastrous four-game road trip.

Arkansas will try to regroup forces after losing to Texas last week, with a non-conference match against North Texas State, a Missouri Valley Conference power.

TCU is facing an uphill struggle against LSU. The game counts as a conference match and is homecoming for LSU.

Calls Real Foe a Political Factory

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Hardy Croxton, the Democratic nominee in the 3rd District congressional race, says his opponent is, actually, the "Winthrop Rockefeller political factory."

Croxton said Rep. J.P. Humphreys, who is seeking his second term, is his opponent in "name only."

A Rogers attorney and former state legislator, Croxton said the Democratic party political machine no longer existed. He said a Republican party political machine financed by the governor had taken its place.

for problems . . . It is a big job that has not been faced up to, to the degree it should be. It will be, in my judgment, by whoever follows me in this assignment."

On other points, the President said:
—He has no plans for foreign travel, although something could develop.

—The United States has exchanged views with Russia not only on the Vietnam problem, but also on the Middle Eastern and arms control problems and on the Eastern European situation.

—As of now, "we have stated everything we can state on the subject" of the captured intelligence ship Pueblo and its 82-man crew. Johnson gave no indication when the seamen might be released by North Korea.

—He is unable to predict when talks might move ahead with the Russians on curbing antiballistic missile systems.

No Definite Cure For Scleroderma

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—What is the cause, prognosis and treatment of sclero-derma morphea?

A—Scleroderma is a chronic disease that may involve any part of the body. When it is limited to the skin, it is sometimes called morphea. The cause is unknown. Although the disease is progressive, there are usually periods of spontaneous remission. Scler-oderma is characterized by hardening of the connective tissue in the involved areas and the outlook depends on what organs are affected. If the disease involves the heart, kidneys or other vital organs,
the complications are serious.
Although there is no cure,

the use of salicylates for joint pains, skin lubricants for light skin, diuretics for waterlogging and prednisone to reduce inflammation is helpful.
Penicillamine has been tried to prevent the progress of the disease but the dosage must be carefully controlled to avoid harmful side effects.

Q—If scleroderma is localized, should tests be made to see whether it is spreading to other parts of the body? Is scleroderma a form of cancer?

A—Anyone who has sclero-derma of the skin should have a checkup once or twice a year. Scleroderma is not a form of cancer.

Q—What do doctors mean by tired blood?

A—I doubt that doctors use this expression. You've been listening to too many television commercials.

Q—What are the ingredients of Postum? Does it have any harmful effects?

A—This is a cereal beverage that is recommended for persons who want a hot drink that does not contain caffeine.
It would have no harmful effect unless you are allergic to wheat.

Q—I am taking Rautrax for high blood pressure and Zyloprim and Indocin for gout.
What side effects do they cause?

A—Rautrax is a combination of reserpine (a tranquilizer and blood pressure reducer) with flumethazide (a diuretic). It may cause nausea, abdominal distress, diarrhea or constipation, headache, weakness and dizziness.
Zyloprim, a brand of allopurinol, may cause the symptoms mentioned, plus a skin rash.
The side effects of indome-thacin (Indocin) are similar to those of the other two drugs. All of these powerful drugs should be taken only under close medical supervision.

God's Word

Come let us go into the House of the Lord

Says Come

YOUR LIFE!

Just what is your life???
According to St. James, life is a vapor that appears for a little while and then disappears. It doesn't take long to burn a match or to live a life. Life is temporary. We are transients. What a tragedy if we pass this way and fail to mark for good. From twenty to seventy seems like a long, long road; but from seventy to twenty is very short. Let us remember that a match consumes it's self to serve others and every worthwhile life is like that. One either burns out or rusts out. A good life is not how long it is, but how well it is lived. It has a vital glow. It is full of little deeds made meaningful by a few great decisions. Why not deposit your life in the program of the church and not rust away. This could be your greatest decision in life.

You In The Church
The Church In You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

Thinks WR's Margin Is Greater

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller is leading in the gubernatorial campaign by a margin greater than the lead he held at this point over his 1966 opponent, an aide said in Pine Bluff today.

Rockefeller's campaign manager, John Ward, said that was the case. He spoke to a group of Pine Bluff supporters.

The meeting was billed as a preview breakfast for Rockefeller. About 100 persons turned out about 7 a.m. for the speeches.

Tom Eisele, the governor's chief legal aide, said the Rockefeller administration has been the "best in the history of Arkansas."

He also discussed the condition of the state.

82 Pledges for Christmas Decorations

What must be one of the finest examples of community cooperation ever seen in Hope has resulted in 82 pledges of thirty dollars each to the Chamber of Commerce Christmas Decoration Fund.

This assures the city of being gaily decorated downtown along Third Street and a few blocks down South Main.

When the company representative told the downtown merchants that each such unit would cost $75.00 it seemed that an attempt would have to be made to patch up the old time worn, wind damaged decorations that have been in use for many years.

At this point B. N. Holt conferred with J. W. Rowe of the Red River Technical School and learned that the frames could be made very reasonably. The F.F.A. class was contacted to do the wrapping and wiring for a small fee. The material for wrapping and the bells were purchased from the original supplier in Houston and is being assembled as indicated.

The idea to place a model downtown and the tree of lights in Anderson Frazier was conceived by Haskell Jones who agreed to promote and push it. Guy Grigg built the tree of lights and James Morrow, president of the Downtown Merchants, suggested the letter to augment the radio and newspaper publicity. Many merchants and individuals also suggested to others that they purchase a fixture.

The combined effort brought great success and you will be able to see the results about December 1st. Since there are 109 poles that can be decorated the Chamber of Commerce has decided to Back came the set of finished electros — and both Edwards and I screamed. Some cotton-picking artist at NEA, having read that every time a frontier gunman killed a man he cut a notch on the handle of his revolver, therefore put a couple of notches on the top side of Bowie's fighting knife!

Electors in Only 16 States Are Bound to Popular Vote Outcome

By WILLARD H. MOBLEY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — If attempts are made in the Electoral College to bargain in selecting a president, most electors will be free to vote for whomever they choose, regardless of the winner in their own states.

Electors are bound to the popular outcome in only 16 states and the District of Columbia.

And of those, only Florida, New Mexico and Oklahoma provide penalties for failing to follow their own states' election results.

Attention has focused lately on possible bargaining for electors' support because of the chance that none of the three presidential candidates may get a clear electoral majority after the November election.

If it appears that no presidential candidate won enough states to guarantee his election, then efforts could be made to get some electors to change their support before the Electoral College votes later in the year.

Only two electors have refused to follow their state's

Word Authority Says Slang Is Talk From a Cultural Subgroup

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — Stuart Flexner loves words — their definition, pronunciation and etymology — and it's a good thing he does, because he has just dealt with 155,000 of them as managing editor of the just published College Edition of the Random House Dictionary.

But in addition to this task and that of senior editor of the standard Random House Dictionary, he is an authority on slang, having written the American Dictionary of Slang, published in 1960, which he revised last year.

"Slang," explains the 38-year-old lexicographer, "is the group of words that enters informal speech from a cultural subgroup. The general vocabulary an average man is expected to know is standard speech, informal and slang. Below that are technical words, colloquialisms and regionalisms, which are fast disappearing under the influence of television."

To be considered slang, Flexner points out, such words must first have been used for a while by a cultural subgroup, such as choices in recent times.

Oklahoma's law was passed after an elector insisted on voting for the late Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., although Republican Richard M. Nixon carried the state.

Oklahoma now requires that each elector be pledged to vote for the candidate who carries the state under penalty of a fine up to $1,000.

The other elector who kicked over the traces was a Tennessee who refused to vote for Harry S. Truman in 1948 and voted instead for the State Rights candidate.

Tennessee still does not have a penalty for similar action. The U.S. Constitution says nothing about tying electors to a particular candidate for president, and historians agree that the Founding Fathers intended to set up a panel of free agents to exercise individual judgment in selecting a president and vice president.

But the right of states to pass laws giving directions to their astronomers, pickpockets, football players or jazz musicians. Second, there must be a synonym for the word. Thus hippie is standard rather than slang, because there is no other term to designate this type of person. Four-letter words are considered by linguists as taboo rather than slang.

A word that was once slang can be universally accepted and become respectable, if enough of the "right" people use it. "Okay," Flexner reports, hasn't carried a slang label for 100 years and teachers no longer prohibit its use.

"Dictionary makers," he says, "are not judges — we're reporters of the way the language is used by educated people."

Where do new words come from? Areas that are especially productive are space exploration, the Vietnam war, which has put such words as Green Berets and DMZ into the language, politics, sports and hobbies, popular music, science,

Nixon Would Reorganize Pentagon

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon, indicating Democratic handling of national defense, pledges a major reorganization of the Pentagon, more influence for top military officers, and more missiles, warplanes and nuclear submarines, if elected.

The Republican presidential candidate, in a nationwide CBS radio broadcast Thursday night, accused the administrations of John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson of "creating a security gap for America" — a phrase reminiscent of Kennedy's 1960 contention that the presidency of Dwight D. Eisenhower had created a missile gap.

In his most extensive discussion to date of defense policy, Nixon argued that the military decisions of the Kennedy and Johnson teams have put the nation in such straits that by 1970 or 1971 it might even face a "survival gap."

Unless he's elected on Nov. 5, Nixon says, Americans might discover "that we are irretrievably behind in the most critical areas in a few years."

Nixon flew to New York Thursday night after touring 157 miles through eastern Pennsylvania, making four formal appearances and eight impromptu stops.

The crowds were good and generally receptive. But there were some sour notes, notably snuffing in the audience at Reading where 10 persons were injured slightly and two men were arrested and charged with assault on a state police sergeant. Police said they did not know what started the fighting.

The GOP candidate will be in New York three more nights. On Friday night he makes a live television broadcast to 10 states and the District of Columbia. Saturday he will be driving to rallies in suburban New Jersey. And on Sunday he will appear live on the CBS-TV "Face the Nation" program — his first appearance before a panel of reporters on television since 1966.

In his radio speech Nixon said that "in recent years our country has followed policies which

Local Rally for Crank Draws 450

HOPE, Ark. (AP) — Marion H. Crank, the Democratic gubernatorial nominee, said Thursday night that the reform programs of his Republican opponent, Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, had been "bumbling and stumbling along."

"One of his greatest accomplishments probably was finding a doctor at New York who could cure hepatitis in five days," Crank said. "He says he's seen 22,000 people in the state. I've often wondered if he's not seeing them three at a time."

Crank said earlier Thursday that Rockefeller's administration had missed many opportunities because of the governor's "amateur approach."

He said he is concerned about "careful financial responsibility in every department." He said, however, that if he is elected he would continue to improve every service being offered by the state.

Johnson Believes He May Yet Find a way for Peace in Vietnam

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is evidently convinced he may yet make a breakthrough toward peace in Vietnam, despite reports that there has been no solution to two major problems standing in the way of a halt to U.S. bombing of the North.

"We are working hard and in active, secret exchanges. The President, arguing the necessity of secrecy, refrained from defining the issues which have blocked agreement so far. Responsible authorities said privately, however, that he is still seeking assurances from Hanoi on de-escalation."

They also said there is still no agreement on including the South Vietnamese government and the Viet Cong's political arm, the National Liberation Front in the next phase of the Paris peace talks.

The President's views came before allied sources reported in See Johnson Believes (on page five)

"Statements by U.S. propagandists that Hanoi has accepted U.S. conditions in return for a bombing halt are nothing but deliberate lies," Radio Hanoi said in a Vietnamese-language commentary monitored here.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, who said he dropped out of the presidential race because he couldn't spare any time from his office for personal politics, is going on television to plug Hubert H. Humphrey.

Johnson announced the television appearance at a news conference Thursday when he also gave an assessment of problems standing in the way of peace in Vietnam and a disclosure on law enforcement.

Johnson said the television appearance is set for Nov. 3 at 8:30 p.m., EST, the Sunday before the election, over NBC.

He already has made a radio speech for Humphrey over NBC and makes a radio speech on CBS at 7:35 p.m. EST this Sunday.

447 Enemy Troops Killed in 3 Days

By GEORGE ESPEY
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese forces, keeping up their pressure despite the lull in enemy operations, have killed at least 447 North Vietnamese in the past three days in the northeast corner of South Vietnam, military spokesmen reported today.

Because allied artillery and air forces carried the brunt of the attack and were credited with most of the casualties, allied casualties in the actions were low in comparison with the enemy's: three Americans and three South Vietnamese killed, 65 Americans and 27 South Vietnamese wounded.

One senior officer said it was still too soon to determine whether the flurry of action below South Vietnam's northern frontier signified a break in the 3½-week lull in enemy activity.

"It might be that we just caught them with their britches down," the officer said.

Some observers contend that Hanoi has ordered the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese to avoid combat to meet President Johnson's demand for a military de-escalation in exchange for suspension of the bombing of North Vietnam.

But the U.S. Command rejects this, contending that losses in men and supplies are forcing the enemy to lie low until he can build up again.

Fighting raged Thursday for the second day in the southeast sector of the demilitarized zone near the coast. American troops from the 5th Mechanized Infantry Division reported 65 North Vietnamese killed in six contacts northeast of Con Thien.

A U.S. South Vietnamese task force reported 112 North Vietnamese killed the day before in the DMZ 10 miles farther to the east.

The other battleground in the area this week was below Da Nang, where reconnaissance patrols came on four columns of North Vietnamese troops on the march Tuesday and Wednesday, and artillery and planes killed 207 of them.

Sixty-three other North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were killed in minor skirmishes in the 200 miles of coastal lowlands stretching from the DMZ south past Da Nang, military spokesmen said.

Another 38 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were reported killed Thursday in three clashes north and south of Saigon. Allied casualties in these encounters were three Americans and seven South Vietnamese killed, and 15 Americans and 60 South Vietnamese wounded.

U.S. Air Force B52s continued pounding away at enemy troop concentrations, base camps, storage areas and infiltration corridors in the jungled foothills 35 to 90 miles south of Da Nang.

Forty of the eight-jet Stratofortresses dumped 1,300 tons of explosives on enemy positions threatening two provincial capitals, Quang Ngai and Tam Ky.

Springdale Rights Suit Dismissed

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — A $500,000 civil rights suit against six Springdale officials was dismissed Thursday by a U.S. District Court jury.

The jury deliberated 23 minutes before ruling in favor of Mayor Park Phillips, City Atty. John Lisle, Police Chief Wayne Hyden, Police Lt. Jack Granger, Police Sgt. Stanley Black and Patrolman Carl May.

The suit was filed by Gene Davis, 44, a Springdale contractor. He alleged that the defendants named in the suit conspired to violate his rights by causing him embarrassment, humiliation and loss of business.

Attorneys for the defense contended Davis had not shown that he had sustained any monetary loss.

Davis testified earlier in the week that he had been arrested and charged on seven occasions.
